THE LAST PRISONER.

The old saying that "truth is stranger than fiction," was fully verified last Tuesday on the arrival of the steamboat Natema, for among her passengers was Mr. H. H. Lee, formerly a citizen of Madison, St. Francis county, in this state, but who has been a prisoner, in close confinement, for the past six years and a half. So close was his confinement that he never was allowed the privilege of communicating with the outside world, not even his own family, who were in the greatest distress at his sudden and mysterious disappearance, and that, too at a time when their worst fears were being daily realized. From a short conversation had with Mr. Lee, we learned the following leading points connected with his abduction and detention in a loathsome prison in the State of Wisconsin, and in free America: In November, 1862, Mr. Lee went to Memphis, then occupied by federal troops, for the purpose of procuring some supplies; he was arrested and thrown into the Irving block, then occupied as a prison; he remained there one night, and that evening, with other prisoners, was shipped on board the St. Cloud en route for Camp Douglass, in Illinois. Arriving there, the officer there in charge of the camp inquired what were the charges against Lee, and was told that he was arrested for speculating in confederate money. The camp officer declined to receive him, as there was no law forbidding speculation in any kind. The Lieutenant having Lee in custody said they would take him to Rock Island then, as they would take any one there. He was accompanied by seven men as guards, and they concluded to have a grand spree before returning to Memphis for active duty. So they went to Milwaukee, Wis., and were going to put Lee in jail for safe keeping, until they had visited their friends and finished the spree laid out for themselves. In the meantime Lee had resolved on escaping, in which determination he was heartily joined and assisted by one of the guards having him in charge. They made their escape but were pursued and captured after a few shots had been exchanged. Mr. Lee was then imprisoned in the Milwaukee jail and there kept in close confinement for two years and a half without being brought to trial. At the end of that time he was taken out and sentenced (without a trial) to four years imprisonment in a branch of the State prison located at Madison in State of Wisconsin.

During the four long years of his confinement at Madison, he was not allowed to write to his friends, never saw a newspaper or book of any kind, but was as effectually excluded from the world, as any living man ever was before. His health was good, all the time, but he came near freezing with the cold the first three winters. The fourth he fared better. The time came at last for his release, and with a heart full of thanks to God for the preservation of his life, his first thought and purpose was to seek his wife and child. He went to Cincinnati, and there met with an old school mate who told him of the death of his wife—his child he knew nothing of. Could it be possible? He left there immediately for Memphis; arriving there he was received, as one risen from the dead, by his many friends, and from one of them he received the joyful tidings that his wife and daughter, now a grown young lady, were not only living, but well and doing well. Tears of joy were shed, and received thanks to Almighty God for His protecting care, filled the heart of the released captive. The swiftness of the telegraph was commanded to flash the glad tidings to the dear wife of his heart, informing her that him for whom she had mourned as dead still lived, and would meet her in Jackson on the 13th instant. They met, and such a meeting as it was never occurred within our knowledge. The joy of the wife at the sight of her restored husband was too great, and swoon after swoon followed in rapid succession.

The news spread rapidly, and very many of our citizens called upon the happy, reunited family, to express their joy at seeing its members once more joined together in the bonds of love. We have seldom ever witnessed a more affecting scene. Mr. and Mrs. Lee left, Tuesday evening, for Batesville, their future home.

THE OCEAN BANK ROBBERY.—EXTRAORDINARY DISCLOSURES.—Nearly all the valuable securities stolen from the Ocean Bank of N. Y., in the recent daring and skillful raid upon that institution, it seems, have been recovered by the bank in one way or another, and still the adroit operators remain at large, watching their opportunity to repeat the operation in some other quarter. Meanwhile we glean the following extraordinary facts from the New York Sun:

"Among the securities taken by the burglars and not yet recovered are $50,000 in bonds of the Portage Lake and Lake Superior Ship Canal Company. These bonds are secured by a lien upon 300,000 acres of choice mineral lands on the upper peninsula of Michigan, and are in all respects a first class security, a fact which the enterprising burglars seem to fully appreciate.

"A short time ago the president of the bank, Mr. D. R. Martin, received a communication from the present holders of these bonds, transmitted in a mysterious manner, asking what would be given for the return of the bonds. The president returned an answer that he would give $2,000 for them. To this he has received a reply, couched in the most business like terms, in which the burglars or their agents express their surprise at the estimate the bank puts upon these particular securities. The writer says the discount proposed is altogether too great for bonds so amply secured as are these and gives the assurance that, while the holders are willing to treat liberally with the bank officials, they are not prepared to submit to the great sacrifice proposed. This communication is altogether one of the coolest pieces of impudence one meets with in a lifetime."

A MURDEROUS SEA FLOWER.—One of the exquisite wonders of the sea is called the opelet, and is about as large as the Gamah aster, with ever so many long petals of light green, glossy as satin, and each one tipped with rose color. These lovely petals do not lie quietly in their places, like those of an aster in your garden, but wave about in the water, while the opelet generally clings to the rock. How innocent and lovely it looks on its rocky bed. Who would suppose that it would eat anything grosser than dew or sunlight? But those beautiful, waving arms, as you call them, have another use besides looking pretty. They have to provide food for a large, open mouth, which is hidden deep down among them—so well hidden that one can scarcely find it. Well do they perform their duty, for the instant a foolish little fishlet touches one of its rosy lips, he is struck with poison, as fatal to him as lightning. He immediately becomes numb, and in a moment stops struggling and then the other beautiful arms wrap themselves around him, and he is drawn into the huge, greedy mouth, and is seen no more. Then the lovely arms unclose and wave again in the water, looking as innocent and harmless as though they had never touched a fish.

KEEPING ENGAGEMENTS.

Some people outlive themselves Christians, or even Christian ministers, have no scruples in violating engagements for their own personal convenience. It is a bad habit—wicked we should say—for every one ought to hold his word sacred. The following incident is instructive:

Sir William Napier was one day taking a long walk near Freshford, when he met a little girl about five years old, sobbing over a broken bowl. She had dropped and broken it in bringing it back from the field to which she had taken her father's dinner in it, and she said she would be beaten on her return for having broken it; then, with a sudden gleam of hope, she immediately looked into his face and said:

"But ye can mend it, can't ye?"

Sir William explained that he could not mend the bowl; but the trouble he could mend by the gift of sixpence to buy another. However, on opening his purse, it was empty of silver, and he had to make amends by promising to meet his little friend in the same spot at the same hour next day, and to bring the sixpence with him, bidding her, meanwhile tell her mother she had seen a gentleman who would bring her the money for the bowl the next day. The child, entirely trusting him, went on her way contorted.

On his return home he found an invitation awaiting him to dine in Bath the following evening, to meet some one whom he especially wished to see. He hesitated for some little time, trying to calculate the possibility of giving the meeting to his little friend of the broken bowl, and of all being in time for the dinner party; but, finding that this could not be, he wrote to decline accepting the invitation, on the plea of a "pre engagement," saying to one of his family, as he did so, "I cannot disappointed her; she trusted me so implicitly."

AN UNQUHILE MARE.

The death of Grant's mare has created an immense excitement and fuss among the army physicians and surgeons. The stomach of the dead animal was sent under a strong escort to the Army Museum for analysis, but the doctor's couldn't agree.—The chief surgeon thought that the beast died the death of nature; the Assistant Medical Director declared that she was poisoned; and a third doctor held the knob of his cane to his nose, looked wise, shook his head, and reserved his opinion for a future occasion. The difference between the three was irreconcilable, and each wanted to report and probably has reported to Grant. The doctors that were left out of the consultation are jealous, angry, and turbulent. Difficulties, it is feared, may grow out of the affair, and Grant is in such an evil mood on account of the loss of his "cavalry" that he can't be prevailed on to say to the fierce parties, "let us have peace." The mare's stomach is to be preserved in alcohol, a fluid said to have been once not wholly unfamiliar to the stomach of the great man, whose in life she was. It is understood to have been decided in Cabinet council, that any person suspected of having poisoned the President's mare shall be tried by court-martial. —Courier Journal.

"THE CRUST OF EARTH."

If we bury a thermometer fifty feet below the surface of the earth, the mercury will remain at the same point the year round, in winter and summer, showing that the influence of the sun does not reach below that depth. If we carry the thermometer fifty feet lower, the mercury will rise one degree, and will rise in the same ratio for every fifty feet we go down. It can be easily calculated at what depth all known substances will melt. This would not exceed fifty miles. It will thus be seen that the crust—or solid part—of the earth is exceedingly thin, in proportion to the diameter; not so thick as an egg-shell, in proportion to the size of the egg. With a crust so thin, constantly cooling and producing a pressure upon the internal masses, it is not strange that the beds of oceans should be elevated and form dry land, and continents should sink and form the beds of oceans. Large mountains have been elevated in a single day, and whole cities have been sunk in the same space of time. The side of a volcanic mountain once broke away, and the livid masses flowed out, forming a river twelve miles wide, which in its course melted down six hills six hundred feet high, filling up valleys six hundred feet deep, and spreading over a surface of eleven hundred square miles.

A GREAT SHIP CANAL PROJECT.—The municipal council of Bordeaux have now under consideration the cutting of a great ship canal from the Bay of Biscay to the Mediterranean, the cost of which is estimated at between seventeen and eighteen millions of pounds, and the time necessary for its completion six years. No doubt seems to be entertained of the practicability and comparative economy of the project.—It would form a direct line of communication with India by the Isthmus of Suez, and save the whole circuit of the Portuguese and Spanish coasts in the case of ships from England or any of the northern ports of Europe. A straight line drawn from Bordeaux to Toulouse will touch the coast of the Gulf of Lyons not far from Perpignan. From Bordeaux to Toulouse the Garonne is a navigable river, so that for over two-thirds of the line, it is said, it is only a question of widening and correcting a water way already in existence. From Toulouse to the gulf there is already a canal. All that is required to accomplish the great object is to deepen and straighten a line of water that now exists. England, it is thought, might derive some commercial benefit from the scheme, though whether enough to compensate her for its effect in diminishing the value of Gibraltar is not so certain.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1869.

Conservative and Democratic Nominee.

FOR SENATOR,

FOR THE NINETEENTH DISTRICT,

JOSHUA PERRY,

OF FRANKLIN.

QUESTION AND ANSWER.

We have received a letter from a gentleman residing in York county, Penn., propounding a number of inquiries concerning our State, and its finances. That part of the letter making inquiries as to "inducments for settling in North Carolina the next year," we have referred to the North Carolina Land Company.

The writer asks "Will you give me your opinion as to the probability of your State paying the interest on your public debt? I hold some of the old bonds, and, before the war a person could calculate on the interest; now the case is different."

True, the case is very different now.—Before the war the management of our State finances was in honest hands; in the hands of men who had a native pride in the good name and integrity of their State, and who would have looked upon it as an act of fraud to launch out into all sorts of extravagancies which the people were unable to bear, while they left the payment of obligations already contracted, unprovided for. But it is not so now. Our native citizens—the great body of our people—depricate the idea of repudiation, and they feel a manly shame at the thought that the non-payment of interest on our bonds has brought them down in the market to a ruinous point. But they cannot help themselves. The management of our State affairs is in the hands of men who seem to care nothing for the honor of the State; nothing for the oppressions under which her people are groaning; they rush madly into all sorts of extravagant appropriations; have created many new high salaried offices; incur needless and heavy expenses invarious ways for the purpose of throwing spoils into the hands of hungry partisans, and yet those who have to bear the burden of these things are powerless to prevent them. Under these circumstances it would be almost supernatural should they feel very great anxiety for the payment of bonds issued for which no adequate benefit to the State can possibly accrue.

We do no believe there is an intelligent citizen of the State who would not recoil at the idea of repudiating any debt of the State honestly contracted, in which is included, of course, the old State bonds, but that they are willing to have themselves taxed to pay bonds, or interest on bonds, dollar for dollar, that are injudiciously thrown into market, and sold for a song, under injudicious appropriations, in which those who must pay have no voice, is another and altogether a different affair.

As to whether the State will pay, soon, the interest on her bonds, is a question we cannot answer. We believe the taxes levied will not be adequate to pay it, and at the same time meet the current expenses of the State Government, which are enormous beyond anything we have ever had to bear before.

Colored Folks, remember, that General Phil. Hawkins bought slaves and paid for them in gold, after the surrender.

A Word to Colored Men.—What confidence can you place in a man who, like Gen. Phil. Hawkins, says he "always thought slavery wrong," yet held on to his slaves as long as he could.

What confidence can you have in a man who, last year, went into Democratic meetings, of his own accord, without being appointed and used his influence to defeat the very party and the very men he now professes to be acting with.

What confidence can you have in a man who was publicly accused, in Louisburg, of refusing to pay to colored men money he justly owed them. Recollect, it is not the Sentinel who makes these charges. It was the colored people of Franklin county who made them.

If Gen. Hawkins is sincere in turning Radical, why does he push right in for office? Why not wait awhile? It looks like he turned over just to get office. As James Harris intimated at the Court House, last night, you had better try the new converts awhile, and see if they are in earnest.

To morrow.—Let every Conservative and Democrat—every man who wishes a reliable representative in the Senate, go to the polls to morrow and vote for Joshua Perry.

Remember that Gen. Phil Hawkins never went round shaking hands with colored men until he thought he could get office by it.

Thanks.—We return our thanks to a friend in Baltimore for a copy of Judge Cantwell's address before the Holly Springs Academy in 1859. We shall draw on it occasionally, as its literary merits and circumstances may suggest.

A RELIC OF GEN. WM. R DAVIE.

Now that our once proud University has fallen, and its friends are dropping tributes to its memory, it is a suitable time to give to the public the following little memento of Governor Davie, whose eloquent tongue plead for money to erect the buildings, whose judgment was so faithfully exercised in determining the location, and effecting its organization, who, as Grand Master of the Masonic Fraternity, laid the corner-stone of the first edifice, and for many of its earlier years labored so assiduously and successfully to contribute to its prosperity.

It was written soon after the termination of the Revolutionary War, in which he had acted so nobly and patriotically, and after he had quietly resumed the duties of the legal profession.

The letter, with other valuable documents of the past, was found among the literary remains of the late Judge McCoy:

HALIFAX, Nov. 27, 1783.

To the Hon. S. Macoy, Esq:

I had been in constant expectation of your arrival here every day, when I received the information of your returning from Hillsboro' to Salisbury; thus end all your promises.

I now take it for granted you are housed or caved, and, like your mountain neighbors, already begin to suck your paw with now and then the end of Coke upon Lee-n. Well, my money-making Philosopher, as you take greater pleasure in this than the enjoyment of your friends, it would be ill natured in me to disturb you.

The Definitive Treaty was signed on the 3rd of September, at Paris, and ratified the 15th of September, on the side of Great Britain. "Deus nobis pace otia fecit." "Man," as Voltaire's old woman says, "seems doomed to live in the convulsions of disquiet, or the painful lethargy of ease." We are really a strange animal. As for myself, as I feel the inertia of age coming fast upon me, I would gladly be assured of a perfect calm for the rest of my days.

The Comte de Grasse has been tried for the frowns of the gods in his affair with Admiral Rodney last year. He is degraded from the order of St. Louis, and condemned to an imprisonment of 21 years. Thus has this great man fallen a victim to a party.

Well, God bless you, and believe me, as usual, a very sincere friend.

WILLIAM R. DAVIE.

For the Sentinel.

Editor Sentinel:—The article in this morning's Standard, which charges me, that I sold, or had sold, liquor at wholesale in the County of Johnston, without having applied for a license, is false and without any foundation in truth; for Mr. Simon Goodwin swore positively that when I first put in a stock of goods at Selma, which was in April last, that I applied to him for them, and offered to pay him for them, when just at that time he was instructed not to act any farther as Collector. I then at once had myself assessed by the assessor, and was never called upon by Mr. Upchurch or any one else for the Government tax until last Monday, when the demand was enclosed to me by mail. It is false about four witnesses swearing positively to the fact, for only three were examined, and one of them was Mr. Goodwin, who swore positively that I applied to him to pay all Government tax before the goods had been opened in the store. It is true I made no denial of anything I did in the premises, for I think I am incapable of doing any act willfully in violation of law, and all gentlemen in my county, scallawags excepted, will testify to the fact. As to the part which calls me a Carpet-Bagger from Virginia, or Chicago, that is also a lie, originating from the meanest, lowest, cowardly scallawag that ever disgraced Johnston County, and it was him, and the other scallawag assessor of the County, who gave information to the collector, thinking thereby to annoy me.

Buffalo Springs, Va., July 1869.

Mr. Editor:—The attention of the people of North Carolina, and especially of those residing in Granville, Wake and adjoining counties, should be particularly directed to the medicinal properties of the water at this place, and especially should those who complain of disordered livers, derangements of the digestive organs, dyspepsia, and other kin ailments, come over to Buffalo and test the virtue of its healing waters, the use of which will work a speedy and definite relief if not an almost certain cure.

There are, as yet, but a comparatively small number of visitors here, the season not having commenced until the 15th of this month. New arrivals, however, come in on every hack, and Buffalo will soon wear the cheerful aspect of antebellum days.—The fare is all that could be desired—such mutton, fat luscious, and cooked to a turn, is enough to tempt the appetite of the most confirmed dyspetic, and the beauty of it is that the water prevents all symptoms or thought of indigestion. The landlord, Mr. Paxson, assisted by Mr. Slater, favorably known in the dancing circles of your State, and master of cermonies in the ball room, does all in his power to render the stay of the visitors here as pleasant and comfortable as possible. A daily line of hacks has been and is running to Scottsburg depot, on the R. & D. R. R., and a semi-weekly line of stages will begin running on Monday next, connecting the springs by a route along the valley of the Roanoke and through the beautiful tobacco lands of this section, with the Raleigh and Gaston R. R., and leaving Henderson for this place every Tuesday and Saturday.

For a quiet, agreeable and health restoring retreat, I know of none more favorable and beautiful than Buffalo Springs.

Very respectfully,

G.

A Carpet Bag State.—The example of appointing relatives to office being contagious, Gov. Holden, of North Carolina, was hardly installed in office as Governor, before he ordered Mayor Haywood to vacate, and commissioned his brother-in-law to fill the place; and when Mayor Haywood questioned the right of the Governor to remove him, the Governor called for troops to oust him. In Orange and Caswell, the Governor has appointed his brothers and cousins as magistrates, all rebels, to whom he had for twenty years preached secession. When the Chapel Hill railroad was chartered he appointed his son Joe director, although his thoughts, habits, and pursuits wholly disqualified him for the position. When the directors met at Chapel Hill, out of five, the Governor had two of his family in the board,—a son and brother. When the Granville road was chartered, the Governor made his brother a director, Coleman, a worthless Attorney General, resigned his office after disgracing it, and the Governor rejoiced because it made a vacancy to which his son-in-law could be appointed. Gen. Grant, it will be seen, has high examples for his partiality for brothers in-law.—N. Y. Express.

MEETING IN ORANGE.

At a meeting of the people of Cedar Grove Township, in the County of Orange, on the 27th of July, 1869, the following proceeding and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Upon motion of J. B. McDade, A. C. Compton was called to the Chair; and on motion of J. C. Lindsay, E. S. Thompson was appointed Secretary.

Upon motion of B. B. Warren, a Committee of three were appointed by the Chair to draft resolutions for the action of the meeting.

The Committee was composed of the following gentlemen, to wit: R. T. Fancett, John Compton, B. B. Warren, who having retired for consultation, reported the following resolutions:

Resolved, That our Government is not what it was, or what it should be, nor are the people as respectful to those in high places as they once were and should be.

Resolved, That the fault is not in the people but in those who now fill these high places of honor and trust, they being wanting in the sterling qualities which never fail to command respect.

Resolved, That the political conduct of our Judiciary has been unbecoming their high places and we hope in future they may abstain from participation in political strife,

Resolved, That the confidence we once had in Judge Reade has been forfeited because of his unjudicial and improper behavior in administering the oath of office to members of the Legislature—administering the oath not to all who presented certificates of election—but to such as he designated, thereby making himself the Judge of the election and qualification of members.

Resolved, That the present heavy debt of the State has been contracted against the wishes of 19 out of 20 of those who have property to pay tax and for the benefit of sharpers and speculators in bonds.

Resolved, That building Railroads with State bonds worth 30 cts in the dollar in gold is a ruinous business to any people, and prudent or even honest men would not engage in it.

Resolved, That General Littlefield, Estes and company of Wall Street, composing the ring, having failed in their efforts to sell the State's interest in the N. C. R. R., our Representatives are charged to see to it that the said Road be not disposed of to any person or ring—because in the event of the Bankruptcy of the State—this Road may be allotted as a homestead for the State: For it is good for States as well as individuals to have homesteads.

Resolved, That we approve of the presentment of the Grand Jury at fall term 1868, and regret that the conduct of the Judiciary was such that they should be presented. We are pleased to hear that Judge Tourgee admits that his being a candidate for Congress, while riding the circuit was the greatest error of his life—while we think, it was a crime.

Resolved, That if the Judge in riding his next circuit will acknowledge his error in his charge to the Grand Jury, it will do much towards making the people, if not forget, at least forgive the "error."

Resolved, That in the late contest between the Supreme Court and the bar, the latter had all the advantage. The bar behaving with moderation, dignity and propriety. The Court with haste levity passion and rudeness, such as was never known before. We take this occasion to express our approbation of the conduct of Hon. B. F. Moore and the bar and our utter condemnation of the rule—ruling and conduct of the Court.

Resolved, That we hold all secret political societies, as dangerous to liberty, and we trace the late cases of arson in this county to the Leagues, of which Governor Holden is said to be the Grand President. The existence of one party is sure to beget another—and so the existance of one secret party is sure to beget another secret party.

Resolved, That we have heard, with profound regret and astonishment, of the burning of the barns of Frank Minor, Jesse Morrow and William Jones, in which they lost horses, mules and grain.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, if there had been no secret leagues, there would have been no secret burning.

Resolved, That it is just cause, of grief, and regret to all, to see such a number of young men go abroad for their education, instead of receiving it at the once honored University of North Carolina.

Resolved, That if the Trustees will reconsider their action, and place at the head of the University a President and Faculty who have the confidence, or even respect, of the people, the lost fortunes of the University may be retrieved.

Resolved, That the location of the Penitentiary on Deep River and the report of the Legislative Committee on Bribery and Corruption clearly show that our Legislature is corrupt.

Resolved, That our thanks are due to the Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Editor of the Sentinel, for his exposure of the fraud and corruption of the various departments of the Government.

Resolved, That we will endeavor to extend the circulation of the Sentinel, and call upon those who love to see falsehood and fraud exposed to help us in the work.

Resolved, That the attack of Joseph W. Holden and those who accompanied him upon the Editor of the Sentinel, was base and cowardly, and was worthy the approval of a cowardly Governor.

On motion of J. B. McDade, it was

Resolved, That a copy of the proceedings and resolutions of this meeting be forwarded to the Editor of the Sentinel for publication with a request that the Editor of the Hillsboro Recorder copy.

On motion of J. S. Woods, the meeting journeds

E. S. Thompson, Sec.

Remember! that many colored men in Louisburg accused General Phil. Hawkins, publicly, of refusing to pay them money he justly owe! them.

Undoubtedly, President Grant is following established precedent in taking a government vessel for a pleasure trip with his family and friends. If there be such a custom, it is most assuredly one of those that are best hooped in the breach. It is not a proper thing for a President of the United States to do, to take a government vessel at an expense of several hundred dollars per day, degrading the vessel to the character of an excursion boat, and her officers and men to the positions of serving meals and waiters, for no other purpose than a pleasure trip. If the President desires relaxation from official cares and relief from the labors of his position, he should take his little excursions like any other American citizen, at his own personal expense and not at the expense of the people. He sets a bad example to his subordinates, and to the people generally, in attaching such large perquisites to his position. It is only another feature of the great curse of the country, men in office not satisfied with the established emoluments of office, and reaching out in all directions for "pickings."—Connecticut Post, Radical.

How They Do Things in Washington.—Wm. P. Wood, late chief of the Secret Service Division of the Treasury, has a pamphlet letter addressed to Secretary Boutwell, containing some exposures of the latter, and in addition makes public some facts regarding the theft of unsigned National Bank notes from the office of the Comptroller of the Currency. He says (as quoted in the Tribune):

"The money on which Turner, Georgia Postmaster, was arrested is a portion of that identical money, not a dollar of which is counterfeit, but is as legitimate and as valid as any issued from the Treasury, possessing all the proper requisites which legalize such currency, with the exception of the names of the bank officers, which were not signed to the bills when they were stolen. I went to some trouble to detect the thief, and fastened the crime upon Mr. Holburd's confidential messenger, Schureman, a man of color employed in the Comptroller's office. In filling up the stolen notes with the names of the officers of the bank, the forger evidently did not attempt to imitate the original signatures of the officers, but probably wrote them from notes obtained from the records of departments to which he had access. A striking peculiarity of Schureman's make-up of a certain letter satisfied me of his guilt as the forger as fully as it satisfied me that he was the thief. Besides the evidence against Schureman connected with the stolen notes, at the time of his arrest many dollars worth of Government articles, stationery, soaps, &c., which he had stolen from the department, were found on his premises after the offence had been committed, and the criminal detected. We were ready for trial at the following term of the criminal court, when the District Attorney, Carrington, informed the Court that it was the desire of the Government authorities not to prosecute the case against Schureman for the present. Thus the case stood until the wife of Schureman undertook the utterance of more of these stolen bills. She was arrested, held for trial, and has since been indicted."

Mr. Boutwell would not steal himself, nor encourage others in stealing,—but he is so much more of the partizan than the true man, that with him Radicalism is a greater virtue than integrity.

Remember that Gen. Phil Hawkins has shown that he is for self and for office, and is not to be trusted by any party.

The receipts for subscriptions and sales of newspapers in New York city for the past nine months are published. The Herald leads largely for the quarter ending June 30, though its receipts for that time, $204,919, are less than those of the World for the preceding quarter, $214,194. The Herald returns much the largest receipts for the three quarters, the World during the last three months having fallen off to $127,181. The Tribune stands third on the list and the Times fourth. The receipts of some of the other dailies for the last quarter are as follows: News, $69,750; Sun, $39,683; Express, $24,763; Post, $23,927; Democrat, $23,850; Journal of Commerce, $23,000; Commercial Advertiser, $10,347. Of the weeklies the Ledger leads, its sales having been $155,014 for the last quarter. Harper's Weekly and Bazar received together $113,098. There are very few others which exceeded $10,000.

Remember! that a colored man in Louisburg charged Gen. Hawkins with refusing to pay him his "Jack's fees" after value received.

It cost only nineteen thousand, four hundred and seventy-one dollars, per bills rendered, to fit the Tallapoosa out for the little Presidential pleasure-trip to Long Branch.

Johnson's administration was called accidental. Grant's seems also to be accidental.—Chicago Times.

Koskoo!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of the Country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE,

has induced Dr. Lawrence to enlarge his Laboratory and facilities for manufacturing, so as to be enabled to supply the extraordinary demand for it.

THE LARGE NUMBER OF TESTIMONIALS which are constantly being received from Physicians and persons who have been cured by its use, is conclusive proof of its remarkable value.

As a BLOOD PURIFIER, it HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY THE

Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative

YET DISCOVERED!

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth. To say nothing of those humors that are hereditary, we can easily see how the Blood may become bad from imperfect Digestion or failure of excretion and how this may influence the process of Nutrition, and thus influence all the functional activities of the body.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues lose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in eruptive and ulcerative diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are affected with scrofula in some form.

Persons suffering from any bad humor are very liable to have it settle on the Lungs or some other vital organ. The only safe rule is to remove the Blood poison at once, before it settles itself upon some vital part.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO!

AS A

LIVER INVIGORATOR!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine that efficiently stimulates and corrects the hepatic secretions and functional derangements of the Liver, without debilitating the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the sides, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, &c.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of wonderful efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys cannot estimate the importance of their healthy action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the urine being imperfectly secreted in kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we inform you that medicine never reaches the Kidneys except through the general circulation of the Blood we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work, [mental and physical] are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful ratio.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows. A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in answering questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, &c., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, &c., &c.

CONCLUSION.

Suffering reader, do not think that because you have tried other remedies, you cannot be cured, but recollect that God, in His Providence, has not afflicted His children with pain and disease, without at the same time giving them something in the Great Garden of Nature that will cure them.

Have no hesitation in writing to me, and stating your case in full, and I will answer you promptly.

KOSKOO!

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1869.

☞ THEO. N. RAMSAY, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

THE weather at Raleigh, N. C., as indicated by the Thermometer at the office of the North Carolina Land Company, Tucker Hall, Wednesday, August 4th:

9 A. M., 80. 3 P. M., 88.
12 M., 82.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY LAST NIGHT.—The big rally came off at the Court House last night. Phil. didn't come—got caught in the rain somewhere, no doubt. Major Willie D. Jones gassed a bit, and Jim Harris gassed a bit more; the Major fired off his bundle of crackers, and Hon. Jim let off his swivel. The Major said he and Phil. were on the poor man's side, or the poor man was on his and Phil's side, and the poor man is likely to stay on his side and continue to be a "poor man" if he sticks to Phil. and the Major.

After they had let off gas enough to feel easy for awhile, the Standard collected and compressed it into a column and a half this morning, and the rally dispersed.

MR. RYAN'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS.—We inadvertently omitted to call attention to this excellent school, as we intended to do, which commenced its Fall session on Monday, 2nd inst., at "Lovejoy's Academy," in the Northeastern part of the city. Mr. Ryan is a young man of energy and fine educational, intellectual and moral qualifications for the education of our youth, and his school offers extraordinary facilities to young men to prepare for College or for the active business of life.

LOOK OUT FOR SOMETHING RECHERCHE.—We dare not tell all we know about it, but we can say this much, that our citizens may expect quite a musical treat, before very long. The musicians are not professionals, but skillful amateurs, who have formed themselves into a band of minstrels; most of them ladies, two of these violinists. They intend to give an entertainment to the citizens of Raleigh, before long, the programme to embrace select pieces, sacred and sentimental, vocal and instrumental. The time and place, with further particulars, will be announced in due time. They are all native North Carolinians.

STATE FAIR.—There was a full meeting of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, to-day, at the office of Messrs. W. H. Battle & Sons. They arranged the Premium list, and Regulations in regard to entries. These will be published in a few days.

Washington C. Kerr, Esq., State Geologist, was appointed, and accepted the appointment, to deliver the Annual Address at the approaching State Fair. We may look for a good and instructive Address on the occasion.

In this connection we may mention that the fence around the grounds is nearly completed, and we presume the putting of the buildings in order will soon be commenced.

Let everybody get ready to come up to the State Fair, and bring his wife and children. We promise them a good and a gay old time.

GLAD TO HEAR IT.—We have received the following answer to our inquiry yesterday, concerning the Hook and Ladder Company. Not having heard anything from it for some time, in the way of parade or practice, we naturally concluded that this and the other associations named, had become lukewarm, and so we concluded to send out a feeler to find what they were doing. We now renew the inquiry, omitting the H. & L's.—where is Fire Company, No. 2? Where is the Bucket Company?

RALEIGH Aug. 4, 1869.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

In reply to your inquiry in yesterday's Sentinel, "Where is the Hook and Ladder Company?" I have the pleasure of informing you that Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, is well organized, having forty good and reliable men, and is ready for any emergency. R. H. RAY, Foreman.

APPEAL.—We have received the address of Com. M. F. Maury to the Graduating Class of the Virginia Military Institute, July 2nd, 1869. No comments of ours could justly characterize the address—to be appreciated, it must be read.

HARNESS AND SADDLES.—We are requested by Mr. W. B. Hutchings to say to his friends that he can be found in the room over the Family Grocery of Douglas Bell, on Fayetteville street, where he will be pleased to have them call on him whenever they want anything in the Saddle or Harness line.

NEW BUT RELIABLE.—A new remedy for purifying the blood and restoring the liver and kidneys to healthy action, and invigorating the nervous system, has recently been prepared and is now offered for sale to the public by Dr. J. J. LAWRENCE, of this city, under the name of KOSKOO.

The gentleman by whom this medicine is prepared is not a quack, but a gentleman of well-known integrity in Norfolk, a man of scientific attainments, and a successful practitioner of medicine, and who has gained a national reputation as discoverer of the celebrated remedy—Rosadalis.

This new medicine, Koskoo, bids fair to outstrip in popularity the former preparations of Dr. Lawrence, and become not only a State but a National medicine.

On Saturday last, and for many days past, the sale in the Norfolk office has amounted to hundreds of bottles, and the demand is still for Koskoo, the greatest remedy of modern times.

We wish Dr. Lawrence abundant success in the sale of his health restoring medicines, and feel that in so doing we direct the attention of the public to a gentleman whose merits deserve a liberal and generous patronage.

STATE NEWS.

A FATAL CASUALTY.—We regret to learn that Mr. Matthew Barber, of this County, while employed at a threshing machine, received injuries from the effects of which he died soon after. We have not been able to get fuller particulars up to this writing.—Salisbury Examiner.

A new Catholic Church was dedicated near Concord, Cabarrus County, on Sunday last, by Bishop Gibbons. It was dedicated to St. James, the Apostle.

A SWINDLE.—A few weeks since, a certain Dr. D. T. Taylor came to S. Mitchell's, in Montford's Cove, reporting that he had had his horse stolen, and was out of funds. He remained there two or three weeks, ingratiated himself into the favor of Mr. Mitchell and others, and was getting into a good practice as a physician. Finally he sold checks to the amount of $350 to Mr. M.; bought a horse which he did not pay for, and left for parts unknown. The checks had been sent him, doubtless, by a Confederate, and of course were protested. Hand him around, and watch out for the clan, of whom there is doubtless a good number traveling around.—Western Vindicator.

LOOKING LIKE WORK.—For the past few weeks our streets have shown many signs of Railroad Building. A number of contractors are here awaiting orders to go to work, while nearly every day trains of heavily loaded wagons and carts, drawn by remarkably fine mules, with numbers of laborers, pass through Asheville on their way to those portions of the road already contracted for. The rise in our bonds have inspired a corresponding rise in the spirits of our people. All are more cheerful and willing to make some sacrifice for and give encouragement to the great work which, alone, will bring prosperity to Western North Carolina, and enable us to send cheap provisions to our fellow citizens in the Eastern parts of the State. Finish the W. N. C. R. R, and we will show the world that North Carolina is independent of any other section of our country for any and every article necessary for our comfort or luxury—and some to spare.—Ash. News and Farmer.

Governor Holden, it is understood, will test the constitutionality of Cebe Harris' right to perform the duties devolved upon him by the Constitution. Superintendent Harris will test the Governor's right to act according to the powers granted him by the Legislature in the Railroad charters. While they are about it, we sincerely trust these distinguished functionaries will test the constitutionality of the Ten Commandments, and if they are to be recognized and obeyed have it so established by the Supreme Court. At present, they don't seem to be much in the way of the Governor, or Cebe, or of "any that unto them do belong."—Ash. News.

MAD DOG.—The Wilmington Star of 3rd, says it is reported that a mad dog was killed in our city yesterday; and it is further said that it required six shots to kill the hydrophobic animal.

WIDE SPREAD USEFULNESS.—The relief of the wants of the deserving poor, and especially of widows and orphans, whose natural provider has been lost to them, is a subject which has been forced upon the attention of communities and individuals through all history, and many plans of systematic relief have been discussed.—Great good has been done by the aid thus given to those unable to help themselves; but, after all, charity is not the best way in which such help can be secured. To accept of alms involves, in some degree, a loss of self-respect and independence. What is wanted is some system by which, at small gradual cost, every laboring man may make sure of leaving to his family, when death takes him away, a sum sufficient to keep the wolf from the door. Such a plan is offered to the public in the advertisement of the National Life Insurance Company in another column. The general features of the management of this Company are there noted, and the local agents will cheerfully give any further information as to the peculiar advantages offered. The "National Life" was chartered by Congress less than one year ago; it began business in August last, having then to establish its entire system of agencies, and to distribute information among the people as to its character and purposes. Both of these things have been done; the entire country and the Canadian Dominion are now covered by its general and sub agencies, and liberal advertising has made the name of the Company familiar throughout the land.—The result has surprised even its incorporators and officers. In ten months nearly 5,400 policies, covering over $15,000,000 insurance have been issued, this amount of business being nearly double that ever done by any other Company in the world during the entire first year of its existence. Such an unprecedented success should not only inspire unusual confidence in the organization so emphatically endorsed, but be the subject of general congratulation that the new Company has been able to do so much for the future comfort of the families insured. Every family thus protected from want is a proportionate diminution of future taxation, temptation and crime.

Low cash rates, and a plain business contract of so much insurance for so much money (avoiding all uncertainties of notes or dividends) are prominent features of the plan pursued by the National Life. Its capital is ample, its Officers and Directors men of unquestioned honor and ability, and its system of business is straightforward and business like. It deserves its success, and it has already taken front rank among institutions of its kind.

See advertisement of P. F. Pescud, the successful and very popular General Agent, for N. C., in another column.

Mr. Grant's brother-in-law, the collector of the port of New Orleans, is involved in the extensive frauds against the revenue that have been discovered in that city. Mr. Boutwell says the charges against the collector shall be impartially investigated, if he is Grant's brother-in-law. Was it in order that their rascalities might be impartially investigated that Mr. Grant appointed all his brothers-in law but one to federal offices? And did he omit that one because he was the only honest brother-in-law he had?—Chicago Times.

GENERAL NEWS.

A corner lot in Cincinnati which was sold in 1798 for $5, was lately sold at auction for the sum of $120,000.

Of the eighty-four steamers which ply between America and Europe, but five are owned by American companies.

Prof. Lamountain recommends the ballooning as a cure for dyspepsia and other complaints.

The income of Mrs. Colt, the widow of the celebrated pistol manufacturer, is $400,000 per annum.

A great tumult was raised in Fairfield, Conn., on Sunday, by a deacon's thrashing his servant girl because she was reluctant to remain at home to cook a nice dinner for him while he went to church to pray for her.

A publishing firm recently wrote to Mr. Spurgeon and made him a very liberal offer for a life of the Saviour. Mr. Spurgeon replied: "Such a work is beyond my ability; have no time at my disposal; and thirdly it would not be my taste. The only life of Christ worth a cent is the New Testament.

Harvest laborers are scarce in Ohio, and obtain from $2 50 to 3, per day. This lasts only through the pressure of the harvest season, but men can readily obtain from $30 to $40 per month and board where they engage by the month and prove themselves as good workers.

During the month of July 1,826 emigrants arrived at the port of Baltimore from Bremen, of whom 762 remains in Maryland. Of these 531 are men and 231 women.

Lewisburg, Greenbrier county, Va., has 1,200 inhabitants and only four voters.—When we add that these four are among the least worth the possession of a vote, this cabinet picture of radical rule is complete. In Charlestown, Jefferson county, Va., with a still larger population, there are, we believe, only eight or ten voters.

THE TEXAS FLOOD.—Gen. Howard has received communications from Texas regarding the recent flood. Fifteen thousand freedmen are bordering on starvation by the loss of houses, crops and employment. The rapid subsidence of the water during the heated term occasioned a great deal of sickness, and their situation is appalling. Many of them resort to robbery and indiscriminate plunder to sustain life, and the result is an increase of the bitterness of the feelings of the white population towards them.

A MAGNETIC WELL.—The Detroit Post says: "In St. Louis, Gratiot county, Mich., they have been engaged in boring for salt. In the course thereof, and at the depth of 900 feet they struck a mineral spring of brackish water, which is said to have a high magnetic power, to such an extent that iron will become magnetized by being dipped into the water. We have ourselves seen a knife which our informant told us had been baptized in the spring so mysteriously endowed, and which exhibited great affection for ten-penny nails. As Father Prout said of Cork, we haven't seen the spring, but we have seen some remarkable "drawings" of it. If it can so affect nails, we are not sure but that mixed with whisky, it would collect the tax from illicitly distilled corn juice. It has already performed, as we hear, some very extraordinary cures of neuralgia. There is no sulphur in it. It pours out of a tube at a height of 28 feet above the surface of the ground, and flows at the rate of 400 barrels an hour."

SHORT SIGHTED COMPOSITORS.—Doctor Kohn, of Breslau, a famous German oculist, has been examining the condition of the eyes of night compositors, and found that the predominating tendency is to short-sightedness, which is more noticeable the longer the occupation is followed. Of 130 compositors coming under his notice 68, or 51.5 per cent, were short-sighted. Of the sources of artificial light oil lamps were found to be far more detrimental to the eyes than gas flames, but less injurious as regards the amount of heat given out.—Dr. Kohn recommends flames protected by glass chimneys, shades arranged to throw more light on the cases, and the discarding of small type in night work. Dr. Kohn is the same oculist who published statistics in reference to the loss of sight among mental workers, and recommended the use of mica spectacles to shield the eyes from the intense heat and flying particles of forges.

INCIDENT OF THE LATE WAR.—Yesterday as our appointed register of the land office here, Mr. MAXWELL, Colonel of the first Michigan Cavalry during the war, was busily engaged in his office, a tall military looking gentleman walked in, who he instantly recognized as Colonel Henry E. Lee, nephew of General Robert E. Lee, and Colonel of the first Virginia Cavalry during the war. The recognition was mutual, and called up bitter and painful reminiscences of events that occurred during the terrible conflict between the two armies.

It appears that during the war the first Virginia and first Michigan cavalry happened to be arrayed against each other, and the feeling of animosity between the two regiments was as bitter as that entertained towards each other by two single persons who are deadly enemies. At the famous battle of Gettysburg the two regiments fought face to face, each learning to respect and hate the other for blows given and the courage displayed.

Between Colonels MAXWELL and Lee, the leaders of the two regiments, the hate entertained by the respective members of each regiment seemed to concentrate, and when the contending armies were engaged on the James river, the two colonels met face to face, and there swore to fight it out in a personal conflict. The resolve was no sooner formed than executed, and a determined and deadly conflict immediately ensued, the two regiments for the time being mere spectators. The result was that MAXWELL received a sword thrust in the groin, and Lee had his shoulder disabled.

Since that day up to yesterday, we suppose that the two men have never met, and it may well be supposed the meeting was a strange one, and that singular feelings were evoked on the occasion. They both bear the ineffaceable marks of hard service; Col. MAXWELL has lost one leg, and has sustained other serious physical injuries; while the left arm of Col. Lee is disabled by the wound received in his conflict with Col. MAXWELL.—Deseret (Utah) News.

The Rev. Rowland Hill used to ride to and from church in a carriage. This gave offence to one of his members at least, who went so far as to hand in, among the notices, one requesting "the prayers of this congregation for the pastor, who, yielding to pride, is in the habit of riding in his carriage, not content, like his divine Master, to ride upon an ass." It was not until Mr. Hill had read the paper, and observed the sensation it created, that he noticed its import; and then, laying it down, he said: "It is true, brethren, I ride in my carriage; but, if the author of this notice will appear at the door at the conclusion of the service, saddled and bridled, I will do my best to ride him home."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, AUG. 3.—Cubans here have official advices to the 28th. The Cubans in recent engagements have made quite a number of prisoners, which prevents an immediate slaughter of captured Cubans and secures their proper treatment. This modification extends to captured filibusters. Gen. Quesada completely destroyed the communication with Puerto Principe. Sickness in the city alone prevents its occupation by the patriots. Several efforts of Gen. Latona to open communication have been disastrously defeated, the Spanish losses being treble that of the Cubans. Gen. Latona's effective force at Nuevetas and the entire district is about four thousand; Quesadas' is nearly nine thousand well armed and disciplined men prepared to advance when the sickness along the coast is sufficiently decreased to permit him to do so. Gen. Jordan had several defensive fights in all of which the Spaniards were repulsed with proportionately great loss. At Villa Clara the Spaniards lost two hundred men with arms, ammunition, wagons, ordnance and provision trains. Another expedition near Trinidad, to take possession of certain marked plantations, was nearly destroyed. Eighty Spaniards were killed and three hundred captured. The number of Spaniards engaged in this fight was thirteen hundred, and that of the Cubans but 700. General Jordan reports himself and troops in excellent condition, and asserts that his command is equal to three times the same number of those opposed to him. He says they are well organized, well drilled and fight like demons. His force is daily increasing by recruits. He expresses entire confidence in the success of the revolution.

Revenue to-day $674 000.

Creswell hopes to be able to come to Washington in 10 days.

The Revenue authorities contemplate stopping distillation of liquor in Philadelphia, in order to start upon an honest basis.

New forms for all custom blank forms will be furnished from here.

[BY FRENCH CABLE.]

MADRID, Aug. 3.—The Captain General of Madrid has addressed a letter to Regent Serrano and Gen. Prim, in which he said: "I took part in the revolution hoping to see morality, law and justice succeed to former abuses. It is now ten months since the revolution was accomplished, and my hopes have been deceived. Greater abuses, widespread immorality and deplorable anarchy prevail—disorders to which it is absolutely necessary to put an end. The Constitution having proclaimed a monarchy, the immediate choice of a King is indispensable. If the Government does not shortly consider the question I shall abandon all hopes as to the consolidation of the revolution, and retire to private life." This letter was read in the Council of Ministers, and created a profound impression.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug 4, M.—The Revenue Department has intelligence of the seizure in the Norfolk, Va., District No. 3, of eight distilleries in the Dismal Swamp.

Treasurer Spinner thinks that the first spurious legal tender "tens" were purposely issued defective as blinds for the more perfect counterfeits now circulating widely.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Marshal Barlow has seized the Spanish gun boats. The cause of the seizure is variously attributed, the most plausible one is, that the boats were intended to operate against Peru.

Barlow refuses to allow Cols. Ryan and Currier to return to the United States on parole.

FROM BOSTON.

THE CENSUS OF 1870.—The New England journals are indulging in gloomy forebodings as to the effect that the census of 1870 will have upon the representation of the several States in Congress. It is believed that the unparalleled growth of the Western States in population will reduce the number of Congressmen from the old States, and therefore a system of representation compounded of two elements has been openly advocated. The Providence Press, in commenting upon this subject, says: "The West is superior in numerical strength, and the East is far superior in financial importance. This fact will necessitate the consideration of the just basis of apportionment, that the section which contributes of its capital to promote the material growth of the country may not be compelled to be satisfied with a small minority in the House of Representatives, while the West, dependent, at least in the early part of its history, upon the favor and patronage of the East, may not have a controlling voice in Congress, and so distribute the capital which they do not own as to exchange itself at the expense of the rest of the country." As the Constitution provides that Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers of persons, no change can be effected without an amendment to that instrument.—Dubuque Times.

Special Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

JANUARY 1ST., 1869.

Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!

The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies. It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in Solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative PILL. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have, and can show, thousands upon thousands of certificates of remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and why should we publish them? Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice, or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change these complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it often advantageously where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and removing effect on the digestive apparatus. There are numerous cases where a purgative is required, which we cannot enumerate here, but they suggest themselves to everybody, and where the virtues of this Pill are known, the public no longer doubt what to employ.

Ay

The Daily Sentinel.

THE EVENING STAR.

Oh, sweetly shines the summer sun,
When heaven from clouds is free,
And sweetly gleams the moonlight on
Field, rock, and forest tree!
But to the pensive heart of love,
Oh, sweeter than these by far
It is, with dear ones steps, to rove
Beneath the evening star.

To others give the festive hall,
Where wine-cups shine in light,—
The music of the crowded hall,
With beauty's lustre bright;
But give to me the lonely dell,—
Oh, sweeter than these by far,—
Where pine trees wave and waters swell,
Beneath the evening star!

The days are past that I have seen
And ne'er again shall see,
When nature with a brighter green
O'er spread the field and tree.
Though joyless not the present day,
Yet sweeter than it by far
'Tis on the past to muse, and stray
Beneath the evening star.

For all the future cannot give
What shortened time hath reft,
And, darling, since thou ceased to live
I turn me to my days of love,—
The sweetest on earth by far,—
And oft in thought with thee I rove
Beneath the evening star!

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate is fixed, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents that already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,
June2 tf Secretary.
